

Prince Edward Island

- Prince Edward Island has a new Progressive Conservative minority government elected in April of this year with the Green Party forming Opposition.
- We have a huge list of regulatory amendments that are approved for drafting to implement several changes that have been made to the Memorandum of Understanding over past years and work will begin soon to develop these amendments.
- Work has been completed regarding the assessment of Wide-Based single tires to operate at equal weights to dual tires and expect an announcement soon regarding this allowance.
- Prince Edward Island is reinstating the driver's license fee and eliminating the 20% reduction in vehicle registration fees.
- The extension to the Arterial Highway joining North River to New Haven (around Cornwall) has been completed and is now in use.